

Private Investigation

Course Description

The Course enables the candidate to start and properly conduct an investigation and explains how the law will affect the candidate, and explores the various investigation methods that are utilized. It also provides the knowledge necessary to establish a private investigation agency/company, approach clients competently and complete assignments professionally.

Course Content

The Training Programme covers the following aspects:

- Legal and General.
- Surveillance Techniques.
- Tracing Persons,
- Private Investigator and the Law.
- Interviewing techniques.
- Getting Started.
- Background checks.
- Taking Statements.
- Infidelity Investigations.
- Employee theft.
- Insurance Investigation.
- Report writing.
- Testifying in Court.
- Missing Persons.
- Business Start Up.

Assessment

Assessment takes the form of both theoretical and practical aspects to give the candidate the best possible learning outcomes, involving the following:-

- Written Examination.
- Presentation.
- Skills Demonstration.

Course Duration

The Course is run over 48 hrs. (circa). Assignments are an essential part of the course programme and therefore the duration element of such cannot be precisely defined as this depends on the Learner.

PHOENIX "MINERVA" LTD

Certification

On completion of the course the candidate will receive Certification in Private Investigation Skills accredited by Phoenix "Minerva" Ltd.

Benefits

In addition to private individuals many companies including Insurance Adjusters, Legal Firms, Banks, etc., require the services of a Private Investigator, so on completion of this course the candidate will be able to offer their services to a variety of potential clients.

Cost

The course fee is €1,200 including examination fees and certification.

Requirements

Minimum age is 18 years.

Preferred Entry Level

Leaving Certificate or equivalent qualification and/or relevant life and work experience.